Judge: Hon. Maxine M. Chesney

1 On February 4, 2019, the Court entered a Stipulated Protective Order for Litigation
2 Involving Patents, Highly Sensitive Confidential Information and/or Trade Secrets (the "Protective 3 Order"). Having considered Plaintiff LegalForce RAPC Worldwide, P.C.'s ("RAPC") Motion to 4 Modify Protective Order and any responsive papers and argument, and good cause being found, the 5 Court rules as follows:<sup>1</sup>

- 6 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions in the Protective Order, "Protected Material" provided 7 pursuant to subpoena and designated by third party witnesses John Salcido and Heather
8 Sapp as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES
9 ONLY" pursuant to the Protective Order may be disclosed in proceedings relating to RAPC
10 and its attorneys brought by the United State Patent and Trademark Office currently pending
11 before an Administrative Law Judge of the Department of Housing and Urban Development
12 and any associated USPTO investigations (collectively, the "USPTO Proceedings"), with no
13 disclosures allowed in any ~~other related matters.~~ related case filed by RAPC.
- 14 2. To the extent deposition testimony has been corrected by John Salcido or Heather Sapp 15 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(e), such corrections shall also be disclosed in 16 the USPTO Proceedings.
- 17 3. Such disclosure in USPTO Proceedings shall be limited to a non-public manner consistent 18 with the protections granted "Protected Material" under the Protective Order.
